II. READING (7 баллов)

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами A — Gu их заголовками 1 — 8. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

- 1. Good for everyone
- 2. Easy to care for
- 3. Part of culture
- 4. Screen fashion
- 5. An innovative idea
- 6. Working clothes
- 7. Jeans' labels
- 8. Clothes to protest
- A. Jeans are one of the fashion's most long enduring trends. Cowboys wear them but so do supermodels, farmers, presidents and housewives. Ask any group of people why they wear jeans and you will get a range of answers. For some they're comfortable and easy for others they're trendy and cool.

- Jeans mean different things to different people, but they are popular everywhere.
- B. Americans do not have a national folk dress with a long tradition. Blue jeans are probably the most recognizable article of American clothing. They have been part of American life for over 125 years. Blue denim jeans became not only an expression of American identity known around the world.
- C. Jeans were first designed as trousers for farmers and miners in the states of the American West. They quickly grew popular with common people, including cowboys, factory employees and railroad builders. The new trousers were made from a very strong material which did not wear out easily. However, at the same time jeans were very practical and comfortable to wear.
- D. Pockets were the weak point of the miners' clothes they easily tore away from the jeans. A man called Jacob Davis had the idea of using metal rivets (fasteners) to hold the pockets and the jeans together so that they wouldn't tear. Davis wanted to patent his idea, but he didn't have enough money, so he offered Levi Strauss a deal if Strauss paid for the patent. Strauss accepted and started making jeans.
- E. By the middle of the twentieth century, these heavy cotton trousers had become a symbol of opposition for young artists and writers. College students started to wear them to show they were against the Vietnam War. The new trousers were banned in American schools from coast to coast and sometimes in theatres and cinemas.
- F. Jeans are good because they don't show the dirt. You can easily go a month without washing them and they don't look shocking. They don't need to be washed as often as other trousers and you don't need to iron them. What's more, because of the strong material you can wear your favorite jeans for years. Even the occasional hole or spot doesn't spoil them at all.
- G. In the 30s and 40s many people began to spend their spare time watching movies where adventurous cowboys rode horses, fought bad guys and wore blue jeans. The actors made jeans popular in movies and everyone wanted to wear them. Young people wished to imitate the casual "cowboyish" look they saw in films, and they began to wear jeans as casual wear.

- 2. Easy to care for
- 3. Part of culture
- 4. Screen fashion
- 5. An innovative idea
- 6. Working clothes
- 7. Jeans' labels
- 8. Clothes to protest

A. Jeans are one of the fashion's most long enduring trends. Cowboys wear them but so do supermodels, farmers, presidents and housewives. Ask any group of people why they wear jeans and you will get a range of answers.

- For some they're comfortable and easy for others they're trendy and cool. Jeans mean different things to different people, but they are popular everywhere.
- B. Americans do not have a national folk dress with a long tradition. Blue jeans are probably the most recognizable article of American clothing. They have been part of American life for over 125 years. Blue denim jeans became not only an expression of American identity known around the world.
- C. Jeans were first designed as trousers for farmers and miners in the states of the American West. They quickly grew popular with common people, including cowboys, factory employees and railroad builders. The new trousers were made from a very strong material which did not wear out easily. However, at the same time jeans were very practical and comfortable to wear.
- D. Pockets were the weak point of the miners' clothes they easily tore away from the jeans. A man called Jacob Davis had the idea of using metal rivets (fasteners) to hold the pockets and the jeans together so that they wouldn't tear. Davis wanted to patent his idea, but he didn't have enough money, so he offered Levi Strauss a deal if Strauss paid for the patent. Strauss accepted and started making jeans.
- E. By the middle of the twentieth century, these heavy cotton trousers had become a symbol of opposition for young artists and writers. College students started to wear them to show they were against the Vietnam War. The new trousers were banned in American schools from coast to coast and sometimes in theatres and cinemas.
- F. Jeans are good because they don't show the dirt. You can easily go a month without washing them and they don't look shocking. They don't need to be washed as often as other trousers and you don't need to iron them. What's more, because of the strong material you can wear your favorite jeans for years. Even the occasional hole or spot doesn't spoil them at all.

Unseen London

Of course, London is famous for that its attractions like Big Ben and the Tower of London. Millions of tourists look at these buildings every year – but not far distance from these places, there are other interesting sights. Next time you set off to visit London, why not plan to go to some of the places close in to the centre of the city that tourists rarely go to? Get into of a taxi and ask the driver to take you to Billingsgate fish market, for example. When you arrive there at the market, you'll be amazed at the sights and sounds of real London. You can ask to the fish sellers about their work — and you don't have to wait on for hours to get a ticket!

When Emma and Matthew moved to Norfolk, they rented a house to see if they could make their new life there. Two years later they're still there and want to stay for good. What keeps them in Norfolk? It's their house, Holly Grove, which they finally decided to buy, renovate and decorate using their own skills and imagination.

Holly Grove was previously a farmhouse. Like many houses in East Anglia, it is a combination of different architectural styles. One side comes from the time of King George V, Queen Victoria's grandson, the middle part is Victorian, and the other side is just a series of unattractive rooms from the 1950s.

Emma and Matthew were looking for a quick way of improving on this strange mixture of styles. They decided on colour. For example, the dining room in the Georgian part of the house had great French windows at either end, which made it very cold. Now it is much more optimistic and warm because it was painted yellow. Emma believes that yellow is always good - the brighter and deeper, the better!

Another big colour idea was the redecoration of the drawing room. There was ugly wallpaper on its walls. One day Emma and Matthew decided that they had had enough, and covered all the walls with cheap red material. For nearly no money

Write 110-120 words

- 1. Write an introduction
- 2. Give 3 arguments "for"
- 3. Give 3 arguments "against"
- 4. Draw a conclusion

Advantages and disadvantages of using the Internet

rologies it's important to realise how using the Internet influences our lives: po-sitively or neportively.

My first argument "for" is the opportunity to increase our level of knowledge. Another advantage is plenty of resources in WWW. In addition, searching looking for am information is quicker than low searching in the books.

The spite of all given good aspects there're always some disadvantages. For example, you can do nothing without any internet connection, Actually, using the Internet makes a hupe harm for eyes. By the way, children may see forbidden back things.

For a conclusion, I can say that we must use the Internet rationally, without hurting our health.

For example, the dining room in the Georgian part of the house had great French windows at either end, which made it very cold. Now it is much more optimistic and warm because it was painted yellow. Emma believes that yellow is always good - the brighter and deeper, the better!

Another big colour idea was the redecoration of the drawing room. There was ugly wallpaper on its walls. One day Emma and Matthew decided that they had had enough, and covered all the walls with cheap red material. For nearly no money and in almost no time, they created a wonderful effect. The room changed into a great place to display their old furniture and paintings.

As well as colour, Emma and Matthew also use a lot of unusual things and pictures to put on the walls of their house. In the bathroom there are large charts showing different kinds of birds and flowers. The kitchen is decorated with toys and the children's paintings. In the bedroom Emma used a lot of printed material and paper. For example, the little toilet is covered in wrapping paper which makes it look like a bright little gift box.

Emma and Matthew's decorating ideas also helped to improve their daughters' room. The walls are covered with old pictures Emma had when she was a child. A family friend painted the ceiling full of poppies, anemones and roses - and now Elizabeth and Kitty wake up to a sea of flowers!
